

The Unique Ability Exercise

Your unique ability is a mindset that honours your natural strengths, what's already within you and comes most naturally to you. It's you at your very best."

Executives, Managers and Directors are leaders within their businesses. In order for them to be most effective they must:

1. Eliminate tasks that are no longer necessary
2. Automate tasks to make more effective use of time
3. Delegate outside of their unique abilities by building and empowering the team around them.
